

Name:
Period:

Studio Profile Project

During the Classical Hollywood period (1920-1960), film studios ruled the landscape. It is hard to talk about the movies during that period without first understanding the businesses and industry that made those movies. There were EIGHT particularly important film studios, divided into two categories. Although some of these names still exist, none of these original studios lived till today as their own businesses:

MAJORS:

1. MGM
2. Paramount
3. Fox
4. Warner Brothers
5. RKO

MINORS:

1. Universal
2. Columbia
3. United Artists

- Homework FOR TUESDAY: you will need to have read and made a notepage for Cookbook 239-247 (very top).
- Homework FOR THURSDAY: you will need to have read and made a notepage for Cookbook 247-250.

In class on Tuesday, you will make a STUDIO PROFILE for your assigned studio:

1. Go to markwaltermath.weebly.com
2. Click on the Homework button.
3. In the top post, click on the link for STUDIO PROFILE.
4. It will be a View Only document. Make a copy (File -> make copy).
5. Name the copy: Studio Profile_Last Name_First Name
6. Share your newly saved profile back with me: Kyle Markwalter
7. Use the text pages listed above (Cookbook 239-250) and the links on the Homework page of my website to research your studio.
8. Fill out all the boxes IN DETAIL using what you learn.
9. Keep in mind that ALL information must relate to the Classical Hollywood period (1920-1960). That means for famous Warner Brothers movies, you cannot put things like The Dark Knight (2008).

Criteria for Success (how am I grading it; this is a large Formative grade):

- Student completes every box of the profile as indicated.
- All information pertains to the student's assigned studio.
- All information about the assigned studio is correct.
- All information about the assigned studio relates to the Classical Hollywood period.
- All names are spelled correctly and dates are properly cited on movies (e.g. It (2017)).
- Profile fits on one side of one page.
- Profile is shared with Markwalter by Thursday 9/28 at 8:00AM